Behind the gate

22 1 1

Chapter 1 by Tiarra Tillman

Everyday I look out my window, but all I can see is a big wooden gate. I'd walk outside and try to look through the cracks, but all I can see is another... wooden gate. I've heard tales that may be true about people who trespass in Mrs. Holgulworth's yard. Whoever does is murdered by the woman. I think I've gotten a glance at her while she was feeding her cat Bobbles in an alley.

Chapter 2 by Tomia Tillman

She is an older woman with gray-ish black-ish hair, her teeth are crooked, she has long finger nails and her cat is on the edge of dying. The one time I looked I think that I almost got caught.
